Grade Evaluation for Instrumental Music Classes:
Wythe County Public Schools

Musicianship 25%	Students will have formal and informal evaluations of their general musicianship on a regular basis. Musicianship evaluations will be based on the Virginia DOE Instrumental Music Standards of Learning. Performances will count as musicianship evaluations.
Participation & Classroom Procedures 25%	Twenty five percent of student evaluation will be derived from student participation in band activities. This includes successful completion of daily classroom procedures and participation in all after school rehearsals and performances. This grade is awarded at the end of each unit of study. Units of study are based on the performance cycle
Rehearsal Procedures 30%	Thirty percent of the Student evaluation will be derived from Students' completion of rehearsal procedures.
Performance 20%	Twenty percent of Student evaluation will be derived from students' attendance and completion of all concerts and or performances.

Rehearsal Procedures are as follows:

1. Each member should be present and on time for all rehearsals and performances of each performing ensemble and sub-ensemble in which the student participates.
2. Each member should have all equipment needed at the beginning of the band activity.
3. Once rehearsal begins, each member should concentrate on the music and objective being rehearsed and use their listening skills as the primary means of communication. The more intensely each member listens and responds to the music around them, the higher the performance level of the band. There also needs to be clear communication between the conductor and the ensemble. Musicians should watch the conductor closely and listen to the directions at each cut-off. Make practical use of your pencil. By making judicious markings on your music, you save valuable rehearsal time and contribute to the quality of the rehearsal and the performance.

Standards of Learning for Instrumental Music

The Student will:

- Demonstrate behaviors that result in increased music learning through a variety of music activities.
- Demonstrate proper playing position.
- Consistently produce tones that are clear, free of tension, sustained and unwavering in pitch.
- Demonstrate the ability to adjust and match pitch.
- Incorporate tempo changes and a variety of rhythms and meters being studied.
- Demonstrate a variety of articulations.
- Perform all major scales and selected melodic minor scales and arpeggios.
- Percussionist will perform The Standard 26 American Drum Rudiments from the N.A.R.D. open-close-open.
- Wind and percussion students will perform a chromatic scale ascending and descending throughout the practical range of the instrument (MM=72).
- Use dynamic contrast and technical skills as a means of expression.
- Demonstrate musical phrasing through the use of dynamic emphasis and tempo modification.
- Demonstrate ensemble skills: balance, blend, dynamics, style, intonation, responding to the conductor's gestures
- Sight-Read music of varying styles and levels of difficulty.
- Sing a part while others play or sing a contrasting part.
- Perform music from a variety of cultures, styles and historical periods.
- Improvise a melody to a I-IV-V-I chord progression.
- Demonstrate knowledge of instrument being studied.
- Identify and count rhythms using established rhythm-reading systems.
- Diagnose and correct personal performance errors.
- Research career and vocational options in music.
- Identify, define, and apply music terms and symbols from music being studied.
