Course Description:

A basic course on how to play various percussion instruments and techniques. Students will receive instruction in: Rhythm reading, music notation, keyboard instruments, battery instruments and auxiliary percussion. Students will perform in class as individuals and in ensemble settings. There will be a concert performed after school hours.

Materials Needed:

Drum sticks, music folder, pencil.

Grading:

40% Participation and Classroom Procedures
30% Musicianship
30% Rehearsal Procedures

Participation and Classroom Procedures (40%)

- Each member should be present and on time for all classes.
- Each member should have all Materials required at the beginning class,
- Once class begins, each member should concentrate on the music and objective being rehearsed and use their listening skills as the primary means of communication. The more intensely each member listens and responds to the music around them, the higher the performance level of the individual.
- Students will play only when instructed to do so.
- All Materials are to put away at the end of class.
- Be Respectful of Others. Inappropriate language will not be tolerated!

Musicianship (30%)

Playing evaluations will be given on a regular basis; there will be a few written evaluations. Being a performance based class; the majority of class time will be spent learning to play and sing.

Rehearsal Procedures (30%)

As your skills progress you will be graded on how well you spend your time in preparation on assignments during class.
